The MSCI Emerging Markets (or "EM") Index is a free float-adjusted market capitalization weighted index that is designed to measure equity market performance in the global emerging markets. The EM Index covers many emerging market country indices. Designation as an emerging market is determined by several factors. MSCI evaluates factors such as gross national income per capita; market depth and liquidity; local government regulations; perceived investment risk; foreign ownership limits and capital controls; and the general perception by the investment community when determining an "emerging" classification of a market. Indices are unmanaged and do not incur management fees, transaction costs, or other expenses associated with separately managed accounts.
